

International Nubian Breeders Association Scholarship

In Memory of Karen Senn and Vivian Proctor

PURPOSE:

To provide the opportunity for qualified ADGA members to attend an ADGA Judges Training Conference or ADGA Linear Appraisal Training.

EXPECTATIONS:

Expenses that this scholarship will cover:

Cost of fees and travel expenses related to attending and participating in either an ADGA-sanctioned Judges Training Conference, or expenses related to attending a Linear Appraisal workshop.

Payment will be made by check.

For judging candidates, any funds not spent on training conference fees can be used to pay expenses (travel, meals, hotel, etc.).

For linear appraisal candidates, funds can be spent on expenses related to attending a linear appraisal refresher session, including travel, meals, hotel, etc.

Applicant must be:

1. A paid member of the American Dairy Goat Association (applicant may be a youth or regular member or part of a family or joint membership) for the year the scholarship is awarded; and either
2. A first-time candidate or apprentice judge taking ADGA's Judges Training Program with the expectation of becoming a licensed apprentice ADGA Judge; or

A linear appraisal trainee candidate approved to attend a Linear Appraisal workshop at that level with the expectation of becoming a Linear Appraiser.

The Karen Senn and Vivian Proctor Memorial Scholarships are not available to currently licensed ADGA Judges with judging at levels above that of apprentice, or currently licensed ADGA Linear Appraisers.

DUE DATE:

Applications must be postmarked by August 10, 2016 and mailed to:

INBA Scholarship Fund
ADGA/Helen Staver Foundation
P.O. Box 865
Spindale, NC 28160

Applications will be sent to a special board of judges to be individually scored. Winners will be notified at the earliest time possible. All applicants will receive a letter informing them of the final results.
